Why Vetter Senior Living partners with Bellevue University to offer valuable education services.

“At Vetter Senior Living, we invest our time, energy, and resources in our team members to strengthen and fulfill our mission of ‘Dignity in Life’. Our partnership with Bellevue University supports that with world-class education benefits, flexibility for team members’ work/school schedules, and generous tuition assistance.

“My goal with this partnership was to give all Vetter team members, including those in rural communities, access to quality education. Bellevue University is the leader in online learning who partners with us to succeed.

“We recognize the value and worth of each person and constantly seek new, more innovative ways to support our staff. We value a world-class experience for our residents, and our team members are the individuals on the front lines interacting with residents daily. The better prepared and educated they are, the better the experience is for our residents. That is why Vetter Senior Living promotes higher levels of education, certification, and learning.”
